ACREDITATION

It's very important to note that all training institutions are required by law to be registered with the South African Department of Education and Accredited through the South African Quality Assuror (SAQA)

education

Department of Education
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

NQF Explained:

NQF stands for the National Qualifications Framework, which is the South African framework used to arrange the levels of learning achievements.

SAQA has been using this framework since the NFQ Act of 2008.

NQF Level 4 - 5

Make-up & Aesthetics Diploma

Make-up & Prosthetics Diploma

How it works is that there are 10 levels of learning achievement, and every registered South African qualification needs to specify its NQF level – basically, what it will teach the student and enable him or her to do in terms of acquired skills.

The NQF focuses on a list of 'applied competencies,' so each NQF level signifies a specific standard of intellectual and academic skills, including problem-solving abilities and learner autonomy. So, the higher the NQF level of your qualification, the more intellectually skilled you are (at least within this specific academic measure).

NQF Level 4

Beauty and Nail Technology Certificate

Make-up Artistry Certificate
